

DRAFT LOTTERY DURING WEEK OF OCTOBER 21 TO 26

To Be Held in Capital
When Local Boards'
Reports Are In

BULLETIN
Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A $1,482,000,000 military appropriation bill, last major defense measure pending before congress, was passed today by the senate.

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The draft lottery to determine the order for calling conscripts into military service, officials said today will be held here sometime between October 21 and 26.

The exact date will depend on the time required for local draft boards to report through their state headquarters to Washington on the results of registration October 16.

Major Ben Howell, director of the manpower division of the army-navy selective service committee, explained that after the drawing, at least another five days would be required to print and distribute the "master list" of serial numbers.

The place at which a registered man's serial number appears on this list will determine the order in which the local boards will send him a questionnaire for information on his eligibility for service and also the order in which, if he is eligible, he will be called up for a year's military service.

Thus with registration on October 16 it will be the end of this month or early November before the questionnaires are mailed.

Issues "Reminders"
Disclosing all this at a press conference, Major Howell also issued several "reminders" to persons subject to the draft.

When a man registers, the officer said, he should use "utmost care" in giving his correct address. Failure to receive mailed draft orders will not be an excuse for not complying with the orders, he declared.

National Guardsmen who resign when their units are called for service, he said, become subject to registration and conscription, just as other citizens, if they are within the 21-35 age limit. The law permits Guardsmen to resign who are below the rank of captain and have dependents.

Last Defense Appropriations
The last big defense appropriations bill of the session was expected to slide through the senate without difficulty today, but disagreement over a preparedness airport construction program put a new stumbling block on the rocky road to a recess for congress.

Senate leaders saw quick approval for the house-approved $1,482,693,636 defense fund measure, which is to finance the peace-time conscription program and the concurrent expansion of the standing army.

The outlook was quite different, however, for a $200,000,000 war department civil functions bill, which when passed by the house, contained an $80,000,000 item for the start of work on 4,000 new airports. A fight on the airport building program threatened to delay senate action on this legislation.

Recess plans, accordingly, were up in the air. Congress started the week with hopes of cleaning up the legislative calendar and getting away by Sunday.

Expect Action Today
The $1,482,693,636 defense appropriations bill called up for action today represented an increase of $12,700,000 over the house-approved total. As recommended by the appropriations committee yesterday the measure contained $1,248,792,636 in cash, $150,000,000 in contract authorization, and $8,900,000 in the navy would get $75,401,000 in cash and $3,500,000 in contract authorization.

Besides funds for conscription and the maintenance of an army of 1,399,441, the bill allocates money to expedite airplane construction, to speed up airplane pilot training and to purchase 78,015 new motor vehicles for the army.

The threat of trouble over the $200,000,000 war department civils function bill arose after elimination of the airport construction provisions already voted by the house.

TO USE SCHOOLS

Springfield, Ill., 3.—(AP)—Schools in all parts of the state will be asked to suspend classes Oct. 16 to permit use of school buildings where needed for registration of men for military conscription. Paul G. Armstrong, state selective service director, said today.

Armstrong said Governor Horner would be asked to issue a proclamation urging all county school superintendents to suspend classes and calling on all employers to permit employees between the ages of 21 and 35 to a leave of absence

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Remember the story about the Hollywood producer who wound up a 17 page telegram with the words: "Disregard the above?" Well, today, the information division of the Federal Works Administration sent out an 8 page release entitled "Text of Remarks by John M. Carmody Administrator, Federal Works Agency, before the Society of Recreation Workers of America at Cleveland, Ohio". Attached was a memo: "This speech was not delivered."

Pickpockets Busy at Corn Carnival in Polo This Morn

(Telegraph Special Service)

Polo, Oct. 3.—Pickpockets were at work today as Polo citizens and their neighbors gathered in the downtown streets to celebrate the second annual corn carnival. Elmer Blair, of Adelina, was the victim of one bandit who took $8 and Guy Donaldson found he was minus $1.50.

Highlighting the day's program was a free lunch at 11:30 when corn bread and maple syrup were served to 2,500 persons. It was during this part of the day's program that the pickpockets did their work.

The Polo Community high school band opened the festivities at 11 o'clock with a concert on a downtown platform. At 3 o'clock a Swiss band will entertain from the platform. "Fi and his bucking mule" will be a feature of the afternoon program. High-diving dog and pony performers will give their act at 3:30 and the Eakle family drum and bugle corps is scheduled for a 4:30 program. At 6:30 tonight the high school band will present another concert and at 8 o'clock the corn queen will be crowned. At noon today the ballots for selecting the honored young woman, had not been counted.

Detroit Judge Urged To Give Himself Up
Detroit, Oct. 3.—(AP)—While police intensified their search for Judge Robert E. Sage today in connection with the fatal shooting of a business partner and the wounding of two other men Tuesday night, friends made public appeals to him to surrender.

An open letter addressed "Dear Bob" appeared in a newspaper urging the fugitive jurist to "please do nothing desperate." It was signed by North J. Bourne, a broker.

Sage, 41, fled from his office in the county building, where he served as judge of Common Pleas, after the shooting which took the life of Ralph Nadell, 48, and wounded Al Nadell, 39, a brother, and Maurice D. Smiley, 56, an attorney.

Inspector Paul O. Whitman of the homicide squad said Smiley told him the judge seemed to "go haywire" during an argument and began shooting.

Champion Husker Will Not Defend His Title
Davenport, Iowa, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The 1940 national corn husking contest to be held near Davenport, Oct. 30, became a wide open event today as Lawrence "Slim" Pitzer, Attica, Ind., who won the national husking crown at Lawrence, Kas., last year announced that he would not compete but would retire an "undefeated champion". At the same time Alvin Roberts, Atalissa, Ia., the 1939 Iowa champion said he was going into training in the hope of defending his title and taking a second try at national honors.

State contest dates have been announced for all eligible states but Ohio, including the Iowa contest to be held near Mitchellville in Polk county, Oct. 25, and the Illinois contest near Aledo in Mercer county, Oct. 28.

Over Hundred Candidates in Races
for 35 United States Senate Seats
Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—More than a hundred candidates, including two governors, three former governors, and four congressmen, have been selected to run for the 35 senate seats to be filled in the November 5 elections. Utah's run-off Republican primary on Tuesday, won by Philo T. Farnsworth, Jr., completed the slate of major party senatorial nominees who will be on the ballot in 34 states.

Vermont picks two senators this year, one for a short, unexpired term. Maine elected its new senator, Ralph O. Brewster, a Republican, Sept. 9, making 36 senators being elected for terms beginning a next January.

For the 35 places being voted a next month, the Democrats have named 34 candidates. Sen-

PETE J. SPERONI, OWNER OF SHOW, DIES OF WOUNDS

Sterling Man Fatally Shot
by Associate in Mt.
Sterling

Pete J. Speroni, 43, a Sterling carnival owner, died today of four gunshot wounds inflicted by an associate last night within the sight of a large carnival crowd on Mt. Sterling's main street, an Associated Press dispatch from Quincy states.

A half hour after the shooting, Sheriff Otto Shoopman of Brown county arrested Jimmy Murphy, owner of an athletic show which traveled with the carnival.

The sheriff said Murphy and Speroni had argued during most of yesterday; that the trouble started over a woman employee of the shows and that Murphy confessed he fired the shots.

Shot Four Times
The P. J. Speroni Shows had opened in Mt. Sterling for the fall celebration. About 6:45 p. m. yesterday Speroni was shot as he stood near the Ferris wheel. Two bullets from a .25 caliber pistol pierced his left side, one entered his back and one lodged in his left arm.

He was given first aid treatment and was taken to a Quincy hospital where he died. Sheriff Shoopman found Murphy in a tavern and lodged him in the Schuyler county jail at Rushville, where Brown county prisoners are kept.

State's Attorney Vernon Briggs of Mt. Sterling said he would file charges today.

Speroni started in show business as a wrestler, later organizing a small carnival. His present large outfit was split into two groups for fall celebrations. Speroni managing one section and his wife the other. The carnival winters at Rock Falls.

His wife was grief stricken at a Quincy hospital. Other survivors include a brother, Jack, and his mother in Sterling.

An inquest was scheduled for this afternoon.

Wells, British Author, Thinks 'Jerry' Near End

New York, Oct. 3.—(AP)—H. G. Wells, British author, arrived today on the liner Scythia and said, "I think Jerry (nazi Germany) is getting nearer the end of his tether."

Some of the planes recently shot down in England were newly completed, he said; some of the pilots young and inexperienced, and "one machine gunner we got had never been up in a plane before."

Wells said he did not believe America should enter the war. "If you came into the war with your party politics, it would interfere with final settlements", he declared.

Army's First Parachute Battalion is Organized

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Formation of the army's first parachute battalion with a strength of 500 volunteer soldiers was announced today by Secretary Stimson.

The new unit, designated the 501st parachute battalion, is being formed with nucleus of an experimental group which has been undergoing training for several weeks in the lessons suggested by Germany's success with this new weapon.

Headquarters will be at Fort Benning, Ga., where the test battalion already is in service.

Wasted Information

Los Angeles, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Men working on a pipeline couldn't understand the antics of 15 members of a rock climbing club making a practice scramble in Rubio canyon.

They carefully explained to each member he could "avoid all this climbing" by taking a trail along the canyon rim.

October and November Babes Have Best Bones

State College, Pa., Oct. 3.—Scientific evidence that babies born in October and November have better bones on the average than those born in other months was announced today at Pennsylvania State College.

The study was made by the division of home nutrition, by Dr. Pauline Beery Mack, Portia Bricker Harvey and Alice Jones Beakley.

It is not magic in the fall weather, but diet and sunshine which account for the better bones. The expectant mothers' diet is more varied in summer than in any other season. Sunshine in summer makes up for lack of vitamin D, a motherhood essential often neglected in diet.

The fall babies' bone have more mineral density and greater maturity. From November onward, the newborn bones are progressively worse in these two respects, until June or July.

The practical importance of the Penn state discovery is in the possibility that better diet will bring infants of all months up to the bone standard of October and November.

Commanders

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Representative Shafer (R-Mich) protested today that President Roosevelt's appointment of his secretary, Edwin M. Watson, as a major general made Watson "eligible to command a combat division though he has not had a day's experience in commanding a brigade or any other unit as a general officer".

Shafer added, in a statement issued by the Republican national committee: "Then there is the celebrated case of Elliott Roosevelt, who walked into the office of the Chief of Air Corps and emerged a captain in the procurement division."

"There are probably 50,000 men in the United States with more purchasing experience than Elliott Roosevelt, and undoubtedly some of them will be drafted next month, but as buck privates, not as captains."

Spends 30 Months in Prison; Gets Freedom on Writ

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Paul Dabney spent two and a half years in the state prison at Menard only to discover that, legally speaking, he shouldn't have been there.

Dabney was arrested by Macoupin county officers in 1937 for a filling station robbery. No grand jury was in session, so Dabney was "indicted" by a petit jury at his consent. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced.

After two and a half years he filed a habeas corpus petition in the Menard county Circuit court and Judge Alfred D. Riess ordered Dabney freed on the ground there was no showing he had been properly indicted.

Judge Riess' decision was upheld today by the Illinois Supreme court. Attorney General John E. Cassidy had petitioned the court to expunge the order releasing Dabney and order him back to prison to complete an indeterminate term.

The Supreme court denied Cassidy's plea.

Thousands of Skilled Workers Are Available

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—That thousands of skilled workers were available for national defense jobs was indicated today by a survey by the United States employment service.

It reported that 215,000 job-seekers were registered in state employment offices on August 31 for jobs in defense industries.

Security Administration McNutt said the largest group of registrants, 67,000, was qualified for work in machine shops and machine tool operations.

The report disclosed that relatively few workers were qualified for aircraft and shipbuilding jobs. Total registration by states included: Illinois 14,022, Indiana 5,250, Iowa 2,760, Michigan 14,709, Wisconsin 3,830.

SOCIAL SECURITY TO FAIL IF NEW DEAL'S RETAINED

Republican Nominee's Prediction Made in Youngstown Talk

Aboard Willkie train enroute to Pittsburgh, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie asserted today on a campaign tour through Ohio and Pennsylvania steel centers that if the Roosevelt administration were re-elected "no social security will ever be paid because this nation will go bankrupt".

Remember this statement "ten years from now if you make the mistake of reelecting the present administration", he solemnly told an audience in Youngstown.

The Republican presidential nominee, who charged in Cleveland last night that President Roosevelt's administration was playing "politics with preparedness", said in Youngstown that a party trying to divide American citizens betrays the interests of the United States.

"Day after day, the men holding the highest positions in the New Deal party have by insinuation

Davis for Willkie

New York, Oct. 3.—(AP)—John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee in 1924, is supporting Wendell L. Willkie.

Davis, long an opponent of the New Deal, declined to amplify his affirmation of support except to indicate it had been foreshadowed by his statement before a senate sub-committee in which he denounced a third term for presidents.

He said he had no plans to take the stump for Willkie.

and innuendo sought to divide the people into two classes", Willkie said.

Willkie declared that he sought to close the mind of no man and added:

Closed Mind Un-American
"When any man closes his mind to hearing discussion, that man is no longer an American citizen. He merely becomes a tool of somebody else."

In Cleveland, Willkie declared last night, "I say that we are now exposed to the aggressors because of the political theories and the political ambitions of a few men. We are not prepared and we are not getting prepared."

The Republican presidential nominee described the defense job as "appalling in magnitude" and offered this program in event of his election:

Aid to Great Britain "even if it means the sacrifice of some speed in building up our own air fleet." Coordination of American preparedness with that of Canada; Selection of the "most experienced and the ablest men" for defense posts;

Revision of the tax system and other steps "to remove every possible obstacle that stands in the way of new investment." Economic cooperation with Latin America.

France Prevented From Reselling U. S. Planes

New York, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The United States has asked—without result—that the Vichy government resell to this country 90 American-made warplanes now blocked by a British flotilla at Martinique.

This was disclosed yesterday by Gaston Henry-Haye, French ambassador, who said France was prevented from reselling the planes by terms of the armistice she signed with Germany.

Kansas City, Oct. 3.—(AP)—An election board deputy checking hospitals for participation in the draft October 16 contacted a maternity infirmary.

Fire Truck Followers Are Liable to Prosecution Chief Cramer Warns

A burning pile of brush near the city limits on Lincoln avenue resulted in a fire alarm being turned in about 6:30 o'clock last evening, summoning the firemen, when it was believed that adjacent property was in danger. The fire consumed the brush pile without damaging adjacent property but created clouds of smoke.

Many cars followed the fire truck to the scene of the alarm and there were numerous narrow escapes from what might have proved serious accidents. The alarm having come from the factory district members of the platoon who were off duty, went to the scene as they received the alarm, driving their private cars. One fireman was almost forced off the road on Lincoln avenue, then given a sound cursing by a

State Police to Escort Ministers to Mount Morris

Freeport, Ill., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Fishop Charles C. Seelman of the Oklahoma area of Methodist churches told the Rock River conference last night that "no puny dictators are going to tell us how to think and pray".

"I do not know what is going to happen to us in this country", the bishop said, "but if we have a profound conviction about God and morality and democracy there are not enough prisons or concentration camps to keep us from preaching and teaching the truths about God."

The war sweeping China has brought about a revived interest in Christianity there, the bishop said.

Dr. Rockwell Smith of Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill., said he regretted to note a lack of religious training and church attendance in many rural areas. This would react against city churches eventually, he said, because of the shift of population from rural to urban districts.

Spokesmen said some 700 ministers and laymen attended the conference last night. Ten state highway patrolmen have been assigned to direct traffic when a motorcade moves into Mt. Morris tomorrow for the celebration of the centennial of the Rock River conference.

First Tanks From Rock Island Now in Canada

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Two dozen United States army tanks crossed the international boundary today on flat cars, en route to Camp Borden, Ont., where they will be used for training Canadian tank units.

This first installment of the 200 over-age tanks arrived in Detroit Tuesday from Rock Island, Ill., covered by a United States government bill of lading. However, clearance was refused until certification of special war office permission for export or armament arrived from Washington.

Another 41 tanks now are in Detroit awaiting similar clearance.

Inventor of Stanley Steamer Auto is Dead

Newton, Mass., Oct. 3.—(AP)—A pioneer, both in the development of the automobile and the photographic dry plate, Frelan O. Stanley, 91, of "Stanley Steamer" fame, died last night at his Newton home.

International attention came to Stanley and his twin brother, Francis, after they built a steam-propelled vehicle for themselves in 1896—and discovered that other people wanted "steamers", too. When they finally disposed of their interests in 1917, they had built 10,000.

The creative twins previously had developed the Stanley dry plate, considered a revolutionary advance in photography in 1883. They sold out to the Eastman Kodak Company in 1904.

British Cabinet Reshuffled When Chamberlain Quit

(By The Associated Press)
London, Oct. 3.—Ailing Neville Chamberlain, former prime minister under whom Britain entered the war against Germany, dropped out of the government today, and Prime Minister Churchill reshuffled his cabinet to give labor a more prominent role.

The man whose tightly-rolled umbrella came to symbolize his pre-war policy of appeasement to avoid totalitarian rulers, resigned both from his post as Lord President of the Council, which he had held since his cabinet fell last May after the ill-fated campaign against the Germans in Norway, and from the inner war cabinet.

He also is expected to give up his leadership of the Conservative party. It is understood a meeting will be called soon to choose a new leader, probably Churchill.

In quitting the political arena to return to private life, the 71-year-old Chamberlain expressed his "unshaken confidence" that Britain will victory.

Authorized nazi quarters in Berlin, commenting on the shuffle, said curtly:

"It shows something's rotten in England". Chamberlain's poor health prompted his resignation, but he had been under fire by Britons anxious to rid the war cabinet of the last trace of the "appeasement policy" with which Chamberlain vainly sought to placate Hitler and Mussolini.

He had survived several crises through the early months of the war, but the Narvik debacle and the withdrawal of British troops from Norway forced his resignation last May 10—the day Hitler's legions invaded the low countries to strike at France.

With the retirement of the peace seeking "Umbrella Man", Prime Minister Churchill was expected to take over Chamberlain's leadership of the dominant Conservative party.

Nazi Offensive Turns to Blind Altitude Raids

The War Today!

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Berlin and Tokyo continue to make gestures of ostensible amity toward Russia in an effort to bring the Muscovites into line with the expansionist ambitions of the new triple alliance (Germany, Italy and Japan) or at least to keep the bolsheviks from torpedoing the plans of the trio.

At this writing Japan—backed by Germany—seems to be fishing for a non-aggression pact with Russia, similar to the one existing between Germany and the soviet.

Signor Mussolini, who hates Communism with an all-consuming passion, thus far has left the overtures to the other two musketeers—Herr Hitler and Prince Konoye. Germany and Japan also had sworn great oaths against Communism, but they're not letting that interfere with business.

Moscow has smiled in response, but one of those straight-lipped smiles. It isn't easy to interpret.

Since the formation of the triple alliance, Communist chief Stalin has maintained a silence which a mystery-story writer might designate as "inscrutable". The world agrees that Russia's attitude is of vast importance to the outcome of the war and the future of Europe.

To my mind Stalin's attitude regarding cooperation with the alliance will be governed by two fundamental requirements: defense of the soviet union against aggression, and the propagation of Communism in other lands.

Every move Stalin has made in his relations with Germany, since he waved Hitler into the war with the Russo-German non-aggression pact, has been directed to one or both of these requirements.

Upon Stalin's assumption of power fifteen years ago, the comparatively new soviet union was devoting much of its energy to trying to engineer a world revolution for the spread of Communism. Dictators Mussolini and Hitler rose to power largely through anti-Communist crusades.

Her young life has been one of many examples of answered prayers and she returns to her people in the mountains with that same faith that her needs will continue to be met by Christian people.

Roosevelt Plans Talk on Defense at Dayton

Washington, Oct. 3—(AP)—The White House announced today

that President Roosevelt would deliver a national defense speech from a special train at Dayton, Ohio, October 12. Stephen T. Early, White House press secretary, said the President's Dayton address would be "non-political" and would be carried free by three national radio networks. It will start at 8 P. M., Central Standard time. The address, Early said, will be a review—a "straight narrative" story on the defense program of the United States. Unlike presidential fireside chats, he continued, it will be addressed not only to the people of this country but to all the 21 American republics. It will be one half hour long and will be carried by short wave to the other 20 American nations in the western hemisphere. Cattle-raising is Argentina's oldest industry.

Daughter Born to Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh

New York, Oct. 3—(AP)—Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh gave birth yesterday to her fourth child—a 7½ pound daughter—a day before her third book was published. Mother and daughter are reported doing well at Doctors hospital. Colonel Lindbergh, in recent expressions, has urged that the United States avoid involvement in the European war. Mrs. Lind-bergh's new book is entitled "The Wave of the Future", and in it she views the conflict as a struggle between the forces of the past and of the future. Mrs. Lindbergh's sons, Jon Morrow and Land Morrow, were born in 1932 and 1937. The first child, Charles, Jr., was kidnapped from the Lindbergh home March 1, 1932, and later found dead. Bruno Richard Hauptmann was convicted of the slaying and died in the electric chair at Trenton.

Epworth League to Chicago

Last Friday afternoon the members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church went to Chicago. Twelve members enjoyed the trip. The group enjoyed a great many sights of the city, including a number of the more famous hospitals, the Juvenile court, and the market and produce center of Chicago. It was the intention to have dinner at the Navy Pier but much to the disappointment of the party it was found that after Labor Day, the pier closes at 5:00 p. m. The party ate at a Thompson restaurant and then rushed over to the Tribune Tower. At the Tribune Tower the party enjoyed a lecture on the subject of the production of a newspaper. A complete set of moving pictures was given, and the party saw the great Canadian trees cut, and made into huge rolls shipped into the mills, on into Chicago, and made into printable material. They enjoyed a trip through the Tribune plant. They then enjoyed a trip of Michigan avenue and a visit to the Wrigley building. On the home-ward drive brilliantly lighted State street and the downtown loop was a big attraction. The party stopped in Aurora for a late lunch, and once home all the members voiced their approval of a very fine time in a great American city.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:
"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to lessen and even destroy the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and accused, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

Newspaper Week
Nearly every institution has a week devoted to its recognition. There is a Be Kind to Animals
week, Fire Prevention week, National Candy week, Washer and Ironer week, National Pharmacy week
and National Apple week, the last five all coming in October. So why shouldn't there be a National Newspaper week?

There is. It expires October 8.
Newspapers are expected to, and do, call attention to the various other weeks, so they should be forgiven for blowing their own horns during their own week.

Newspapers are so firmly established as a necessity that nothing now in sight is likely to supplant them. One of a newspaper's valued qualifications is its permanence—not necessarily of the firm itself, but of its output. A newspaper in the hands of a subscriber is as permanent as he wants to make it.
Unlike the spoken word, the newspaper's record is in print. It can be referred to later. It can be checked and re-checked. It can be misquoted, and frequently is—temporarily—but it can not be denied.

The function of a newspaper, as we have said
in this column before, is to tell what happens. It tells news. To gather the news your newspaper contributes to the maintenance of news writers in every city on the globe. If there is an earthquake in Turkey, a riot in Tobolsk or an outbreak of pestilence in Corrientes, you get the news with pictures
as fast as cable, wireless, steamship, telephone, airplane and motor car can bring it to you. The only qualification by which news is judged is whether it is of significance to you. If a goatherd in the Urals dies, you never hear of it; but if Stalin dies, the earth is shaken and you must know.

Your newspaper would be interesting, to a lesser degree, even if it had no news. You may read articles on child training; on diet and health; as permanent features, and special articles by special writers almost every day. The advertising in a

YESTERDAY: Sue Mary returns
to the office. Babs and young Clark. Vera tells them the plot has worked, that they'll get the papers to frame Clark tomorrow. Joe is hurt in a fight at the factory. He is unconscious. Sue Mary is terrified
by the sudden sweep of events.

VERA LOSES A GLOVE

CHAPTER XXII

It was impossible, there in the routine work-a-day office, to forget the terror of the night before. Sue Mary mechanically typed and filed and took dictation.
She listened to Babs Fleming burst forth in confidential, whispered details of her trousseau
shop, and tried desperately to force an answering smile and a faint show of interested enthusiasm in Babs' wedding plans.
"Gosh, Sue Mary, I'm so excited. Only a month—but it seems ages to wait. Jim's so sweet. He's so interested in everything we're getting for the house. He was ever last night and we got everything out and looked it over again;
for the umpteenth time, I guess."
"Sometimes I think it will be sworn out before we really get settled. I mean things like linens and china and silver. Gosh—I'm so in love."

Her blue eyes were dreamy and
she went off into one of her periodic day dreams, while Sue Mary felt fear convulse her own heart.
She should be able to dream such dreams herself instead of sitting here now with icy terror gripping
her.

She had already called the hospital three times and each call
had brought her no new information. Joe was still in a coma.
There was still little encouragement to give, except that he was holding his own and doing as well
as could be expected.
She closed her eyes and tried to remember how it had felt to be in his arms, with his lips close to hers; how she had put herself to sleep nights planning on what their home would be like.

She looked up and saw Kitty
frowning with flying fingers and "Vera, cool and tailored today in a white pique sports dress. Vera was more self-possessed than usual this morning. She worked quietly and efficiently with no
waste motion."

Vera had her own course clearly outlined and she gave no hint
of what she planned to do in the evening.

Sue Mary wondered if she felt
any fear, sensed any possible danger. But then she, too, was in love. Natalie had pointed that out. She was in love with Nick and so blinded by that love that
to what he asked was all that mattered.

KITTY walked over to Vera's desk. Sue Mary saw her toss something on it and then heard her say, "You must have lost this when you were here last night."
Vera turned, but Sue Mary couldn't see her face. "Mine?"
she said in a low voice with that husky note. "What are you talking about?"

"Don't give me that business," Kitty said sharply. "You know what I mean. You should know better than to leave telltale evidence."

Sue Mary swung around in her chair and looked at the girls. Vera was holding a white lace glove in her hands. And her face was a study of absorption.

"You're being melodramatic,"
she said, evenly.

"No, you are. I know what I'm talking about. I know what you're up to. You've been trying to hook Ross Clark from the first moment
you set eyes on him. And you've played this high-and-mighty lady act, too. Last night you were here with him. In his father's office. You think you're pretty clever. But you aren't. You're not half clever enough."

Vera laughed. "Well, I made the grade and you didn't. Why not confess that the really what bothers you? You tried, but Ross Clark couldn't even see you. And certainly I don't have to make excuses to you for my presence here last night with him. This is his office as well as his father's."

"Only I have my doubts if he knew where he was or whom he was with," Kitty answered furiously. "Just what are you trying to do?"

"My dear, you simply wouldn't understand," Vera told her quietly.
"And I haven't the time or the inclination to draw any diagrams for you. If you must know, however, Ross dropped in here for some papers on our way to dinner."

SUE MARY wondered later just what might have happened at that point if Miss Grant hadn't come into the office.

"It's a good thing you went out to take that stuff from Mr. Clark
last night," she told Sue Mary.

newspaper is not the least-read feature, by any means. In numerous surveys it has been proved that advertising is read as consistently as the news
itself. For further entertainment newspapers offer fiction by well-selected authors, and the comic strips
cater to children and grownups as well.

If newspapers are permitted to continue telling what happens, the future of the United States is assured, for neither the excesses of fascism, the practices of communism nor the tyranny of monarchialism can remain in any country where the press is free, and people can read. People may not believe their newspapers when the scribes point to an evil only one-tenth completed; or even when it is six-tenths completed. But when the evil is perfected—if the press can tell the people what is done
here and there, the people will believe, and eradicate the evil. If the news is significant to you, your paper will let you know—if permitted to do so.

Pink Glamor
If Uncle Sam has any esthetic appreciation of womanhood, maybe he ought to stop and think seriously about the color of U. S. Army uniforms before he rashly tosses out the conscripts in something he may regret later.

Look what's happening in Britain. English Tommies wear khaki uniforms and girl friends soon discovered that blond hair didn't go too well with khaki.
Brunet, chestnut... yes. The best combination with the official uniform was pink. So a London hair stylist began capitalizing on the idea and British gals blossomed out with pink tresses.

It's all right probably, if you happen to like pink—even on a woman's hair. But just to be on the safe side, maybe the army had better scratch its collective head at this time and think this business
over.

Pan Americanism by Air
It's a good bet that just about everyone in North and South America is glad to see something being done about bringing the continents closer together. We mean the new Pan American schedules.

A 48-hour service is to be inaugurated between Miami and Rio de Janeiro. Shortly after the first of the year, a number of other new flights will be placed in operation, with planes going to Puerto Rico, the Bahamas, Central and South America.

With schedules now in operation, this will all add up to a total of 137 departures for Latin America a week.

Pan American conferences are fine. And so too is the increasing popularity of air travel between the two continents.

Battle Against Truth
Some indication of the enormity of the task
which the British are attempting in their censorship may be gleaned from a small dispatch from Bermuda. That resort had been somewhat deserted because of the war until recently, when a new batch of 200 censors arrived, bringing the total in Hamilton to more than 320. Now the leading hotels are filled—with censors.

It's their task to peruse every bit of mail which
is carried on the clipper planes stopping there,
amounting to hundreds of bags weekly.

So great is the battle to keep down the truth,
Against such great odds do American reporters
battle to tell this country what is actually happening
in London and in Sussex and in Kent.

BEHIND
THE NEWS
By PAUL MALLON

whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, October 2 — Even
the thoroughly leak-proof censorship has failed to conceal the internal troubles of Hitler and Mussolini in their own countries and the occupied areas. Authorities here are aware trouble is far more widespread than the recent admission in Berlin that the Hitler regime had met with recalcitrance in Holland. Acts of sabotage are known to have occurred
both in Belgium and occupied France. After the cutting of a cable in a certain French town,
the mayor was imprisoned by the Nazi authorities for two weeks.
He was released with the announcement that he would be recaptured and shot if another such act took place. The same method has been applied in all occupied territory.

While this situation is troublesome to Hitler, there is no valid information available yet suggesting that its scope is serious.
Toucheit internal spot in the axis
is the Italian production machine.
The slow progress of the Italian war in Egypt is confirmation of other indications that Mussolini has failed to get his people to make a sufficient war effort. Nazi agents for some months have been installed in all Italian factories to spur the cause. But the failure of Hitler to deliver easy termination of the war, first promised to Mussolini August 15 and then for September 15, may yet develop into the most serious crack in the dictatorial war machine.

This government had better
speed up its defense program or slow down its foreign policy. The alternatives have become so obviously pressing since the organized dictatorial threat-diplomacy
program was instituted against us
that our statesmen are talking about it—privately of course.
They can see that our straightforward tactics are opening the way for our involvement before
we have the weapons with which to meet the obligations we are acquiring.

This realization is evident even down deep within the National Defense Commission itself. The necessity for a single strong authority in the defense program is now everywhere clear. There it is likewise most fully appreciated
that materials ordered for delivery late in 1941 or 1942 might as well not be ordered at all as far as the immediate defense problem is concerned. Main trouble is no one in the commission has anything
more than advisory power to require speed and coordination.

The discomfiture of these inner groups, yet wholly unapparent to the public at large, may lead to a change in the commission setup at least to the point of designating a chairman who could furnish the fire and power necessary to synchronize the task.

Mr. Roosevelt's embargo against scrap iron may seriously hinder the Japanese war effort in China, but this government's purchase of gold and silver from Japan are simultaneously helping to finance the same war effort at an accelerated rate.

The tide of the precious metals,
more precious to us apparently
than to the Japanese, is rising high. Imports of gold from Japan to $6,163,181 the week ending
Sept. 25, the highest of any week
period this year.

Silver shipments from Japan
that week reached $675,519, the largest in six months. The silver is believed to be part of the loot
which Japan seized in China, but the gold probably is entirely newly mined Japanese production.
Japanese output is about $60,000-000 a year and we apparently have been getting all of it at an average of about $5,000,000 a month. Therefore, there is little possibility that the Germans have
made use of their ally yet to foist
off upon us the small amounts of
gold they are presumed to have
seized in their European conquests
this past summer.

But since the start of the Sino-Japanese conflict in 1937, this government has bought $60,000-000 of Japanese gold and more than $15,000,000 of silver, $7-500,000 the first six months of this year. Therefore, there is little possibility that the Germans have
made use of their ally yet to foist
off upon us the small amounts of
gold they are presumed to have
seized in their European conquests
this past summer.

The sudden recent increases of these shipments leads authorities
here to believe Japan is in a way preparing for war against us with her own money. By selling metals which she considers no longer useful for monetary purposes she reserves stock of gold have sunk
below a paltry $150,000,000 she is enabled to build up credit in this country which she will probably use mainly to build up stores of certain kinds of oil and low grade gasoline.

Cincinnati Reds Knock Schoolboy Rowe, Detroit Star, Out of Box National Leaguers Even Series

By JUDSON BAILEY

Crosley Field, Cincinnati, Oct. 3—(AP)—Schoolboy Rowe, the towering right-hander who had been beaten only three times this year, faced Bucky Walters on the pitching hill today as the Detroit Tigers and Cincinnati Reds fought the second game of the 1940 World Series before 30,000 fans.

The weather was perfect, warmer and sunnier than yesterday when the Tigers took the opening tussle 7 to 2.

Rowe, who was one of the heroes of Detroit's last two American League pennant triumphs in 1934 and 1935, contributed 16 games to the Tigers' championship this year.

Walters, also a right-hander, won 22 and lost 10 for the Reds during the regular season. His catcher today was the veteran Jimmy Wilson again and the rest of Cincinnati's lineup was the same as for the first game.

Manager Del Baker of the Tigers named Birdie Tebbets to receive Rowe, but otherwise he kept the same batting order in action. Story of the game:

FIRST INNING

Tigers—Walters' first pitch was a wild one that went past catcher Wilson on the fly and he walked Bartell on five throws. McCosky also walked on five pitches. With the count one and one, Gehring struck a single into right field scoring Bartell and sending McCosky to third. Greenberg grounded into a double play, Werber to Joost to McCormick, scoring McCosky. York struck out on four pitches.

Two runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Reds—McCormick grounded out to Higgins. Rippe flied to Greenberg in short left. Higgins took Wilson's easy grounder and threw him out.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

SECOND INNING

Tigers—Campbell raised a pop foul to Werber inside the third base coaching box. Higgins got two balls, fouled off a couple and then grounded to Myers. Tebbets lifted a high fly to Myers.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Reds—McCormick smashed the first pitch on the ground into left field for a single. Rippe took a strike and then popped to Bartell in short left field. Wilson singled into short right advancing F. McCormick to second. Joost looked at three bad balls and one strike and then shot a hard single to center, bringing F. McCormick home and putting Wilson on second. Myers hit the first pitch between Higgins and Bartell for a single, scoring Wilson and sending Joost to second, as the crowd yelled madly and Detroit's infield came in to confer with Rowe. Tebbets tried to catch Joost off second and threw into center field, Joost racing to third and Myers going to second. Walters, who had waved at the first two pitches and then got two balls, flied to McCosky in short center, and Joost was prevented from coming home by a great throw. Werber waited out a three and two count and then walked on a low pitch inside, filling the bases. M. McCormick struck late at the first pitch and raised a high fly which Bartell just got under.

Two runs, four hits, one error, three left.

THIRD INNING

Tigers—Rowe took a count of three and two and then went down swinging. Bartell raised a high fly to M. McCormick. McCosky waited out a three and two count and then lined to M. McCormick in short center.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Reds—Goodman laid down a drag bunt and beat Rowe's throw to Rowe for a hit. F. McCormick sent a sharp line to McCormick in center field. Goodman holding first. Rippe knocked the first pitch over the fence in the right field corner, 370 feet from home plate, scoring Goodman ahead of him. Fans in the bleachers sent a small shower of missiles into the air and those who swiftly cleared from the field. Wilson lifted a high fly to Bartell in left field. Gorsica began warming up in the Tiger bullpen. Joost sent an easy fly to Campbell.

Two runs, two hits, no errors, none left.

FOURTH INNING

Tigers—Walters stopped Gehring's bouncer and threw him out at first. Walters, pitching for the corners, walked Greenberg on four straight balls. York raised a high fly which Myers took in short center. Campbell lined to M. McCormick in right center.

No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

Reds—Myers hit the first pitch to Campbell in short right field. Walters smashed a drive along the left field line which was good for two bases. Werber sliced the ball into the left field corner, where it hit the fence and bounced back into the field past Greenberg good for an easy double and scoring Walters. Joost Gorsica, a rookie right-hander, replaced Rowe. M. McCormick sent a bouncing grounder to Higgins who tagged Werber on the basepath, but did not make a throw for McCormick. Goodman sent an easy roller to Gehring and was thrown out.

One run, two hits, no errors, one left.

FIFTH INNING

Tigers—Higgins looked at a ball and then smacked a double into the left field corner. With the count two strikes and no balls, Tebbets lined to Rippe, who held Higgins on second. With the count two and two, Gorsica knocked the ball down in front of the box and was thrown out by Walters. Higgins reaching third. Bartell knocked an easy grounder to Werber and was thrown out by three yards.

No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

SIXTH INNING

Tigers—McCosky drew a base on balls. Gehring grounded to Werber, forcing McCosky at second. Werber to Joost, but beat the throw to first. Greenberg smashed a liner that rolled to the scoreboard in left center field, good for a double and scoring Gehring. York flied to Goodman in deep right, Greenberg moving to third after the catch. Campbell rolled to Joost and was thrown out.

One run, one hit, no errors, one left.

Joost flied to McCosky in right center. Myers whiffed on Gorsica's fast ball. Walters knocked the first pitch back at Gorsica and was thrown out.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

SEVENTH INNING

Tigers—Myers pulled in Higgins' fast grounder and threw him out. Tebbets hit a three and two pitch at Werber and was thrown out. Gorsica struck out.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Reds—Werber was thrown out by Higgins. M. McCormick, hitting a second pitch, went down the same way. Goodman hit a bouncer over Gorsica's head, but Bartell gobbled the ball and threw him out.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

EIGHTH INNING

Tigers—Bartell lifted a high fly to Rippe in left field. Myers picked up McCosky's grounder and threw him out. The official attendance was announced at 30,640. Gehring raised a high foul to Werber back of third base.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Reds—F. McCormick drove a high fly to McCosky. Rippe hit the first pitch to Gehring and was thrown out. Wilson sent a sharp bouncer that bounced off Higgins' glove and was scored as a single. Joost lifted a high fly to Campbell.

NINTH INNING

Tigers—Green took one ball close inside and then drove a tremendous fly near the scoreboard in left field, that Rippe pulled in. York struck out. Campbell hit the first pitch to Myers, who backed up into short left.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

during the day to register. Adjutant General Lawrence V. Regan said the registration in Chicago would be conducted entirely in school buildings and that many schools downstate would be used because army regulations forbid the use of polling places where business is being conducted.

Register in Precincts—Armstrong said registration would be supervised by regular election officials in each county but that in places where the usual polling places were unavailable, substitute polling places in schools or other public buildings would be designated. In either case, he said, draft eligibles still would register by precincts.

"For instance," Armstrong said, "if the usual polling place in precinct No. 15 of Springfield was unavailable, registrants would be informed by placards to go to a designated school room to register."

Registration will be entirely on a volunteer basis, Armstrong said. Owners of polling places will be asked to make no charge for use of the quarters and election officials conducting the registration in each precinct are being asked to serve without pay.

FIRST CALL NOV. 15

New York, Oct. 3—(AP)—First draftees for the United States Army will be called into service about Nov. 15, Lieut. Col. Lewis B. Hershey, acting national director of selective service, said today.

In a press conference, Hershey said the age of individuals within the limits of 21 to 35 years, would have no bearing on the selection by the local boards, although he added the army would prefer men from 21 to 26 years of age.

Marriage, of itself, he explained, would preclude no eligible male from conscription, although he said present arrangements call for "good sound judgment on the part of the local boards."

Everyone Will Be Working by Middle of '41 Says McNutt

Chicago, Oct. 3—(AP)—All persons able and willing to work will be employed by the middle of next year, says Paul V. McNutt, Federal Security Administrator.

McNutt spoke last night at a banquet signaling the formal start of President Roosevelt's campaign in Chicago.

He said that "legitimate business" had increased "to a point close to the prosperity of the boom years" and that industrial activity reached near capacity in 1939 and 1940.

McNutt estimated that the "normal expansion and development" of business would provide jobs for 4,600,000 men and that their wages would result in the employment of 3,000,000 additional persons.

Asserting that the next four years would be one of the most critical periods in the nation's history, McNutt criticized the Republican party's choice for national leadership as "a man who daily demonstrates his inability to lead his own party."

"Speeches 'Look Good'"

"Nothing but apathy and almost complete indifference on the part of Republican leaders has greeted his pledges and commitments," he said. "So far as can be observed, he has influenced not a single vote either in the House of Representatives or in the Senate. His policy is a personal policy, and his platform an individual one."

"How can a man run the country when he can't run his own party?"

McNutt declared that the speeches of the Republican nominee, Wendell Willkie, "look good in the newspapers. He's a good gag-man and his personality is engaging. But you can't frighten a dictator by rumpiling your hair, blowing your breath in his face, and making wise cracks. Mr. Chamberlain was a charming fellow, too."

Steel consumption in the U. S. in 1939 averaged 2,295 pounds per family.

All Prophet: No Loss

Who was that gink who was wrong so many times—that the one time he was right no one would believe him? The name escapes us but the principle seems to apply to our recent high school football predictions. If there's any charm about a third time, we'll take our chances once more. For the games tomorrow night, then—Dixon over Princeton. Or else... Sterling over DeKalb. The way the Scheidmen have been performing we'd be foolish (no cracks) to put our faith in the inexperienced Barbs. Looks from where we sit that Sterling is in the driver's seat so far.

Rock Falls over Mt. Morris. Dixon has tangled with each and you know what happened. Now doesn't it stand to reason that the Rockets SHOULD win? Mendota over Belvidere. This looks like a bright year for Mendota and so far the boys down south have done nothing to discredit themselves even in the game with Sterling. Belvidere hasn't shaped into the threat of former years.

Rochelle over Amboy. The Hubs are plying right along with one conference victory already knotted in their belt. Amboy has taken it on the chin twice and we're afraid it's the third time coming up. Polo over Morrison. Taking a wild aim on this one, it looks like the Marcos have less aches and pains than the battered Morrison hosts.

Stockton over Oregon. This is built on Stockton's defeat of Oregon more than anything else and may be the one to keep us in our place. If you see us running for cover Saturday morning, it's not an air raid... or is it?

"Potter Day" Preparations

Preparations for "Potter Day" at Mt. Morris Sunday herald it as one of the biggest sports attractions of the season in this neck of the woods.

Jack Harvath, manager of the Mt. Morris Cardinals who will play the Northern Illinois State League's all-stars, has announced the program for the event. Paul Potts of Dixon and Morris Owens, popular Rockford radio announcer, will introduce the players and describe the game over the public address system. Fans will also be kept informed on the World Series game.

Harry Cone of DeKalb will work as umpire behind the plate with Ray Baker of Mt. Morris at first; Peble Rock of Mt. Morris at second and Ward Miller of Dixon at third.

Nelson Potter, who will appear on the mound for the Cardinals, worked out with the team several times this week and is expected to be in great shape.

Hofmann for McNichols

Fritz Hofmann will substitute for Bill McNichols in the Class B competition of the city golf tournament here Sunday afternoon. Young McNichols has gone away to school and Hofmann will represent the Country club in the match with Em (What's News) Rorer of Plum Hollow.

Ken Detweiler of the Country club will meet Bill Witzleb of Plum Hollow in the major Class A event and the winner of today's match at Plum Hollow between Don Bush and Elwin Wadsworth will represent their club in the Class C match with the Country Club's winner of the A. V. Lund-F. Trautwein match to be played Saturday.

Passing Parade

Bill Underwood, former Dixon high school football player, was out bright and early this morning giving a member of the younger generation some lessons in pigskin passing.

Here Tomorrow

John Lindell, six-foot-six-inch pitcher for the Kansas City Blues and nephew of Coach C. B. of Dixon, will arrive here tomorrow to spend the week end.

John is now visiting with Coach Lindell's mother in Winfield, Ia., and will arrive here tomorrow afternoon in time to attend the Dixon-Princeton football game.

Efforts are being made to arrange a possible performance by John on the mound for the League All-Stars in the game with the Cardinals at Mt. Morris on "Potter Day." As yet arrangements were not completed.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

Cincinnati, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Talk that Bucky Harris might shift from Washington to succeed Oscar Vitt at Cleveland had the gossip buzz today. Harris is reported interested because (A) he could get more money and (B) he thinks he could win a pennant with such guys as Feller, Boudreau and Mack around. (Confidentially, he is a bit fed up on those Cubans, Lithuanians, Venezuelans, etc., with which the Washington camp is littered). Here's a late flash from gossip row: If Harris does get the Cleveland job, his successor at Washington will be either Buddy Myer, Ossie Bluege or Rogers Hornsby. Things are so hot Hornsby has asked at least two guys we could name to intercede on his behalf with Clark Griffith.

SERIES NOTES—

The Tigers had nothing but praise for the work of Bill Klem, "the old arbitrator," behind the plate. Said it was one of the best umpiring jobs they saw all season, which is pretty nice considering Bill comes from the other side of the fence. The Reds gave the veteran Jimmy Wilson a handsomely engraved watch for stepping in and catching the last eight games in the pennant drive, after Ernie Lombardi was hurt. Before yesterday's game scalpers were asking $50 for a pair of tickets—at one hotel, the price was $70. Young Spike Briggs, vice-president of the Tigers, told Del Baker: "Beat 'em four straight if you can." To hell with the money! Whoever heard of a magnate talking like that.

Rochelle Boxers Win Six Events in Rockford Show

Rochelle's amateur boxers won a supreme victory over leather-punchers from Rockford, Freeport and Pecatonica last night in the Mandell's show at Rockford with six victories in the seven matches on the card.

Roger Cote, Rochelle southpaw, defeated Luke Alfano of Mandell's gym in the windup event with a decision in the third round. Clean blows by the Rochelle lad carried him in the judges' favor.

In the only bout in which a Rochelle boy did not fight, Babe Marinelli of Mandell's won a close decision over Bobby Bell of Freeport.

Vern Stunkel of Rochelle, a former Golden Gloves champion, defeated Mike Sartino in an unanimous decision of the judges. Eddie Kerchner of the Hub city won a three-round decision over John Staef of Freeport in the 145-pound class.

In the 126-pound division Bill Donaldson, also of Rochelle, defeated Salvatore Giovino of Mandell's in a three-round bout. Donaldson forced the fighting most of the way.

After an event first round, Junior Pearce of Rochelle forced a decision over Doon Pennicoff of Freeport in another 126-pound match.

Pran Leemkuil's winning streak was snapped by Freddie Stewart in their 118-pound match in three fast rounds.

The Rochelle boys, led by Fred Warning, were credited with 1,000 percent punching.

Series Notes

By FRITZ HOWELL

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 3.—(AP)—World "Serious" sidelights! If you think the Cincinnati Reds aren't in a serious predicament, just take a look at the record. (In case you didn't know, the Reds lost the series opener yesterday to Detroit, 7 to 2).

Well, to delve into history a bit, the club that won the opening game of 36 previous series went on to take the title 25 times, which definitely puts the Reds on the short end. And should they lose today they're practically out of it, for teams losing the first two contests have been beaten out in 17 of 18 years. Only the Yanks of 1921 annexed the first two games and then lost the series.

The limited 33,000 seating capacity of the local ball yard is expected to slash quite a bit into the "cut" of the players. The players' pool for the first game was $75,040.80, a far cry from the $111,710.91 derived from last year's opener at New York. The experts have it figured that the winners will get about $5,500 each this year, with each loser taking down $4,200, more or less.

CINCINNATI USES WALTERS TO STOP ANOTHER DEFEAT

Rhinelanders Appear to Be Overmatched in World Series

By GAYLE TALBOT

Cincinnati, Oct. 3.—(AP)—It looked again today like the National League had over-matched itself as the Cincinnati Reds reeled under the impact of an opening 7 to 2 defeat by the Detroit Tigers and sought desperately to come back.

Again it looked like boys had been sent out to tackle grown men. Today's game at Crosley Field was only the second of the big series that decides the championship, yet the experts, a majority of whom picked Cincinnati to win, already were shaking their heads.

The one hope of the Reds to avert a rout probably as disastrous as that they suffered a year ago at the mauling bats of the New York Yankees rested today in the stout right arm and cool pitching head of Bucky Walters.

If Walters could stop the Tigers and square the series before the two clubs switched to Detroit for the next three battles starting tomorrow, then there might be a chance for the locals. But the Reds looked bad in every way yesterday as the Tigers blasted Paul Derringer from the hill with a five-run assault in the second inning and then went on to win as they pleased.

No Batting Punch

It was obvious that Manager Bill McKeechne's boys had nothing resembling a batting punch as Bobo Newsom paved dust around the pitching mound and mowed them down. And it was equally plain that the Reds were tightened up to the snapping point in the field.

Walters faced a situation in the 1939 series similar to the one confronting him today. Then it was the Yankees who had licked Derringer, and Bucky went charging into the breach. The Yanks found his sinker-ball a positive delight and teed off on him while Monte Pearson was blanking the Reds with no hits.

Walters' opponent today was the Tigers' towering Schoolboy Rowe, who made a sensational comeback the past season after a trip back to the minors with a lame arm. Rested and primed for what figured to be his one big effort of the series, Rowe promised to be fully as effective as Newsom was yesterday.

McKeechne refused to give up, naturally, but Bill must be beginning to wonder if he's lived a proper life. Yesterday's was the ninth straight World Series defeat suffered by clubs under his management. The Yankees trounced his 1928 Cardinals four straight and served his Reds the same bitter dish last autumn. And now the Tigers have taken up where the Yankees left off.

The Reds still were sadly crippled, with Catcher Ernie Lombardi and Second Baseman Lonnie Frey on the bench, and it looked increasingly doubtful that either would get into the play-off at all. But there was no real reason to believe that their absence seriously influenced yesterday's one-sided result.

Replacements Do Well

Eddie Joost, Frey's replacement, made two of the Reds' eight blows off Newsom and didn't bungle a chance at field. Veteran Jimmy Wilson caught well enough, too, though his batting naturally was weaker than might reasonably have been expected of Lombardi.

Shortstop Billy Myers got a long running start toward being the goat of the play-off when twice in that terrible second inning he failed to make snap throws that would have retired Hank Greenberg and possibly have enabled Derringer to pull out of the hole and settle down. Both times Myers appeared to freeze. He looked like he wanted to throw the worst way, but simply couldn't.

But the Tigers' margin of superiority was even greater than that. They proved they could knock the cover off good pitching. Derringer had his stuff, but no one could have guessed it when Greenberg, York, Higgins, McCoskey and Bartlett began whaling away at him in the second. Big Paul had retired only one man and five runs were across before Whitey Moore could come to the rescue.

Moore Whiffs Seven

Moore pitched a fine stretch of ball from the time he relieved Derringer until he retired for a pinch hitter in the eighth. His fast ball was whistling and he struck out seven Tigers, among other things. Yet he had one short lapse in the fifth, and it illustrated forcibly the sudden, savage power in the Detroit bats.

Wham! York smashed almost a line drive against the right field screen, Moore took a deep breath and threw again. Socko! Bruce Campbell lofted it high and far away into the right centerfield bleachers. The two blows took more out of the capacity crowd of more than 32,000 than had the second-inning outburst, for they made it cruelly obvious that the American League still packed a knockout punch.

Williams Quintet Leads Big Sixteen-Team Bowling Circuit With Margin of One Game

All Team and Individual Records Withstand Onslaught of Keglers at Dixon Recreation

Williams DeSoto, for several weeks the undefeated leaders of the Classic League, lost two games at the Dixon Recreation last night and as a result the keggers hold a narrow one-game margin of supremacy with Beier's Bred in a close second.

As the 16-team circuit met for its fifth week of bowling, all individual and team records of previous rollings remained untouched. The Welty's Pontiacs won three games from the I. N. U. and moved to share a third place tie with Schlitz. Lesser rolled a 497 series to lead the Pontiacs and Pmvert was high for the utilities with 497.

Beier's Bred won two games from Sunkist Pies. Breeding's series of 545 was high for the doughboy winners and Carlson led the plenum with 516.

Win Two From Leaders
Schlitz won two games from Williams DeSoto. Krug's 535 series was high for the winners and Worley rolled an excellent series of 212-204-213 for 629. This score, highest of the evening, is 14 pins behind the 643 series rolled previously by Charlie Davis to stand as the league record.

Plowman's won two games from the Hi-Way Grill as Plowman led his own team with 477 and Daschback, topped the losers with 558. Doh's 232 in the third game was also only 14 pins below the record which is held by Ralph Long with 246.

Potter's won two games from the United Cigars as R. Potter rolled 515 to take the snokers to the cleaners and Bremer was high for the losers with 458.

Knacks won two games from Wilbur Lumber company. Klein's 580 series was high for the winners and Badger rolled 494 for the lumbermen.

Dixon Machine Works won two games from Coca Cola as Weidman was high among the active bowlers of the winners and scored 450. Elifson's 409 was high for the active bowlers among the losers.

High games last night included those of: Klein 203; Daschback 232; Gorman 216; Worley 212-204-213; McCordle 232 (also just 14 pins behind the record); Lesser 203-209; Jeanguenat 206.

Wham! York smashed almost a line drive against the right field screen, Moore took a deep breath and threw again. Socko! Bruce Campbell lofted it high and far away into the right centerfield bleachers. The two blows took more out of the capacity crowd of more than 32,000 than had the second-inning outburst, for they made it cruelly obvious that the American League still packed a knockout punch.

Ival Goodman saved the Reds from a shut-out. He doubled off Newsom in the fourth and scored on Jim Ripple's hit, and in the eighth his line single brought in Bill Werber, who had doubled.

New Method for Cage Tourneys May Be Adopted

By GILES FINDLEY

Chicago, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A new and much less elaborate method of determining the state high school basketball championship today needed only the sanction of the directors of the Illinois High School Association to become official.

High school principals have voted by a two to one margin, to abandon the old system which sent 16 teams to the finals and which required three days of play at the University of Illinois to decide the championship.

The new way, adopted from the plan used in Indiana, would send only four teams to the finals and the result would be determined in a single day.

C. W. Whitten, executive secretary of the association, said that a referendum among the 920 members of the group had brought 720 replies. Of these 481 favored the change, 227 were opposed, and 12 either suggested other changes or were indifferent.

Four Quarter Final Events

The change, Whitten said, would result in the "Sweet Sixteen" as the finalists formerly were known, meeting in four quarter final tournaments in different sections of the state with the four winners of the quarter final games meeting at Champaign for the finals.

In both the quarter finals and the finals, the results would be determined in a single day.

Whitten said the board of directors was scheduled to meet in Peoria Saturday, Oct. 5, and the proposal would be presented to them for action. He said it was likely, if the change was made, that it would be adopted for the 1941 tournament.

Asked if the replies had shown any definite trends for or against according to the size of the school voting, Whitten said they appeared to be about evenly divided.

Dates for Tournaments

If adopted, details of the date of play for the quarter finals and the finals would have to be worked out. It was announced months ago that the state final tournament would be held March 20, 21 and 22 at Champaign. The change might not make any difference. The quarter finals could be held on one day in the middle of the week and the finals on Saturday, as usual.

School men long have contended that the present method was antiquated and cumbersome. They said it took players and schoolmates from too many classes and disrupted morale of the contending schools as long as their team remained in the running at Champaign.

With 16 teams in the final tournament, it required eight games in a single day to eliminate half the entries and the quarter finalists were determined the second day. Two sessions on the final day determined the semi-finalists and the champion.

Almost 600 uniform acts to reduce conflicts in legislation, are now on the statute books of the 48 states.

A century ago, grapefruit, then considered valueless, were used for ballast in ships.

Lindell Uses Week of Practice to Stress Blocking; Trying Backfield Combinations

Dixon Football Team to Open North Central Conference Competition in Game With the Tigers

Tomorrow night the Dixon Dukes will swing into the North Central conference campaign to the ragtime tune of "Hold that Tiger" as they invade the lair of the Princeton gridmen.

The Lindellmen, who had definite but mistaken ideas of what awaited them at Rock Falls last week, have shaken a case of sluggish psychosis and are no longer counting poultry before incubation. Although the Dukes had no foundational facts for treating the Rockets lightly, they have even less reason not to respect the Tigers.

In three games played thus far Coach Foster Keagle's boys have matched the Dukes in the won, lost and tie column. Each team has one mark in each department. In the matter of scoring the Dixon boys are ahead of their opponents with 20 to 13, but Princeton has a greater total although scoring 40 points to the rivals' 42.

Possible Backfield Charges
A failure of the Dixon backfield to respond as expected at Rock Falls, has caused Coach C. B. Lindell to cast an eye around for changes and several boys who have not been given opportunities before, may see plenty of action tomorrow night. The week has brought strong competition for backfield posts with several candidates showing promise.

PROBABLE LINEUPS

Travis lg C. Smith
Shiras e B. Smith
Sanford rg Nelson
Quick rt K. Shipp
Shultz qb C. Shipp
Walder qb Mercer

Sanborn fb Frantzen

Lloyd Gilbert, a quarterback candidate whom Lindell describes as "one of the gamest on the squad", has been developing as an excellent tackler and blocker and may replace Warren Walder in the starting lineup or as a substitution. John Vaughn, regular left halfback, has been working under the handicap of an infection on his right wrist and has not been out for practice the past two nights.

Working in his place has been Floyd Egler, a sophomore of outstanding ability who looks like a top man for next year. He has a natural ability and a keen pleasure in the game which make him eligible for backfield substitution at almost any time.

Sanborn at Fullback
Robert Sanborn, veteran fullback has been holding his post with credit and will probably be a starter tomorrow night. James Carter, a right halfback and quarterback candidate, has been seeing increased action in varsity practice. Also at right halfback is Clarence Kelly who did some stalwart work in the Rockford-Dixon game.

Clell Weidman, another backfield man, has worked under the handicap of poor vision without special football glasses, but expects to overcome this hurdle soon with new optics. Seberino Padilla, although slightly injured in practice this week, is expected to handle his end of a passing attack in the style which gave Dixon its only touchdown at Rock Falls.

Other alternates for varsity posts include Jack Feger who has been playing at end and who snagged Padilla's touchdown pass last week. Vaile has been working as an alternate to Bugg at left end.

Coach Lindell considers his line is still a problem and new changes are likely for tomorrow's game. Bill Shultz, who has been playing right end has been nursing a bad ankle and Feger has an injured leg.

Other varsity players who are expected to make the trip to Princeton include: Toffe, guard and center; Fulmer, center; Thompson, tackle; Boehme, guard and tackle; Hink, guard; and Hoeman, tackle.

This week Winger's team has been working on new plays with new combinations and outstanding performances have been noted from Schnake and Joynt. The former has perhaps made the biggest strides in improvement of any man on the underclassmen's team. The lineup which Winger will present is likely to have many changes from that used at Rock Falls where the minor Dukes lost, 6 to 0. Winger has named his possible starting combination as follows: Pierce or Schnake at left end; Evans at left tackle; Cramer or Pierre at left guard; Thompson or Quilhot at center; Hess at right guard; Edwards at right tackle; Miller at right end; Loftus at quarterback; Joynt at left halfback; Leineke at right halfback and Quilhot or Schnake at full back.

Other members of the team who are likely to make the trip include: Knack, end; Hamill, quarterback; Collins, right halfback; Leeper, left halfback; Haeffiger, guard; M. Smith, guard and R. Cramer, tackle. The last two mentioned are freshmen.

HARTNETT NAMES FRENCH TO HURL FOR CUBS IN TODAY'S CITY SERIES TILT WITH SOX

Chicago, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs, having ended the City Series at one game apiece on the strength of southpaw pitching, were ready to come back with another lefthander tonight as the battle scene shifted to Comiskey park, home of the White Sox.

Manager Gabby Hartnett named Larry French to carry on from where Vern Olsen left off yesterday. Olsen limited the Sox to seven hits and won, 8 to 2.

Jimmy Dykes, Sox manager, also selected another lefty, Edgar Smith, despite the fact it was southpaw Thornton Lee who was charged with yesterday's setback. However, all the blame couldn't be charged to Lee. The Sox committed five errors behind him.

three by Third Baseman Bob Kennedy, one by Luke Appling while Lee bobbled one himself. Pete Appieton came to Lee's relief in the sixth.

The Sox got their only runs off Olsen in the sixth on Joe Kuhel's single, Julius Solter's triple and an infield out.

"I use Hills Bros. Coffee.
My husband and my guests never fail to
say this about it:

"Now that's what I call
good coffee!"

Your Grocer says: Hills Bros. Coffee is one coffee you can use "as is"
in any kind of coffee-maker

See directions on the side of the can and follow them carefully. And don't grind Hills Bros. Coffee. You'll lose aroma, flavor, and freshness.

THE GREAT LEO,
world-famous illu-
sionist and magician,
says, "There is no
mystery about making fine coffee. But you must use good
coffee and measure
accurately. Carefully
observe the timing
for the method you
use and keep your
coffee-maker clean."

FALL APPETIZERS

Dutch Apple Pie

1 cup granulated sugar
1-3 cup water
1-3 cup cream
1 tablespoon butter
1-2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 tablespoon sugar
4 cups sliced apples
Pastry for 1 crust

Place sugar and water in sauce
pan. Bring to a boil. Boil gently about 5 minutes, or until syrup becomes thick. Add cream, butter and cinnamon. Cool 5 minutes.

Roll pastry to 1-8 inch thickness and fit into pie pan. Mix flour and the 1 tablespoons sugar together.
Sprinkle on bottom of pan. Add the apples, which have been pared, cored and sliced. Pour syrup mixture over apples, being careful to coat all exposed pieces.

Bake 30 minutes in hot oven
400 degrees, then reduce temperature to 300 degrees F. and bake 30 minutes longer. Serves six.

Fried Carrots and Apples

6 medium-sized carrots
6 tart apples
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening

Scrape carrots and cut lengthwise into thin slices. Pare the apples, or leave skin on, as prefered;
core and cut into slices about 1/4 inch thick. Place a single layer of the apples and carrots in large frying pan with the shortening, cover tightly, and cook until well browned. Turn and brown the other side. Just before the cooking is finished, sprinkle with the sugar and salt. Serve on a hot platter, placing a layer of carrots
on a layer of apples.

Oysters a la Poquette

1 pint oysters
1 1/2 cups milk or cream

1 tablespoon butter
2 tablespoons flour
Salt and pepper
Nutmeg
Cayenne
2 egg yolks or 1 egg

Heat oysters in their own liquor.
As soon as they begin to boil,
skim carefully and drain, saving liquor. Add 1-2 cup of oyster liquor to 1 cup milk or cream,
and prepare a white sauce with
the butter, flour and this liquid.
Season with salt, pepper, nutmeg
and a dash of cayenne. Add remaining 1/2 cup cold milk, or cream, to well-beaten egg yolks.

Place oysters in the white sauce
and add to egg mixture. Cook over hot water for 3 minutes, or until eggs thicken, stirring constantly.
Remove from heat immediately
and serve with a border of buttered toast or baking powder biscuits.
Serves six. (Note: This delicious Creole dish may suggest a new way of serving the popular oyster.)

Chocolate Butter Cream Icing

6 tablespoons butter
2 squares unsweetened chocolate
1 teaspoon vanilla
1-3 cup top milk or cheese
1/2 cup nut meats

1 1/2 pounds confectioners' sugar
Melt chocolate and butter together in top of double boiler. Add vanilla and milk. Add sugar slowly and beat until creamy, using sufficient sugar for spreading consistency. Spread on top and sides of cake, sprinkling chopped nut meats over the icing.

Cream of Fresh Tomato and Mushroom Soup

1/4 pound fresh mushrooms
2 tablespoons onions
1/2 cup butter
3 cups tomatoes
1/4 tablespoons soda
1/2 bay leaf
3/4 cup flour
2 1/2 cups milk
1 tablespoon salt
6 teaspoons minced parsley
1/2 tablespoon sugar

Wash and chop the mushrooms
(stems and caps), medium fine.
Mix with minced onion. Melt butter in frying pan. When bubbly, add mushrooms and onions. Cook gently until golden brown. Place tomatoes, soda, sugar and bay leaf in sauce pan. Bring to a boil, then simmer 15 minutes. Put through a fine sieve. Add flour to butter, mushroom and onion mixture. Stir until blended.

Bring tomato mixture to a boil,
add flour mixture, stirring rapidly; cook 2 minutes. Add a small amount of the scalded milk to tomato-flour mixture to make a thin
paste. Stir in remaining milk, beating vigorously; bring to a boil
and add salt just before serving.
If soup should curdle, beat rapidly
with an egg beater.

Note: This soup may be served either hot or cold. If hot, pour in to soup bowl and sprinkle finelyminced parsley over the top; if soup is to be served cold, cool,
then chill well and serve with parsley garnish.

Although this quantity may seem large (8 generous servings),
this soup will keep for several days if stored in refrigerator at an even temperature.

IN THE NEWS

One large milk company is delivering about 200 pints of goats'
milk daily in New York City, an amazing increase over the daily
two pints with which it started two years ago. Recent finding show that goats' milk and cows'
milk are much alike. Goats' milk is pronounced higher in vitamin B, as well as in albumen, while the butter, although as white as the milk, is as high in vitamin A
as the yellow butter from Holstein milk. In goats' milk there is softer curd and less fat.

Things are not what they seem,
for what appears to be a fine silk damask tablecloth actually is pure glass. Dinner cloths and place mats are being made in beautiful patterns with the new glass fabric. At present they are priced about the same as good damask. Guests may strew sauce
and gravy stains where they will,
and the nonchalant hostess can wipe off the spots with a damp cloth. Glass fiber does not absorb moisture like linen or silk, so the spots stay on top, and respond quickly. Another surprise—the

What Our Presidents Have Said of the Freedom of the American Press

By LEO POLLOCK
King Features Syndicate Writer

The pages of history contain not a single utterance by a dictator in favor of a free press. On the contrary, dictators, who reserve to themselves exclusively the right to speak and write as they please, act with the utmost speed to crush any show of editorial independence.

Napoleon, in his day as efficient a dictator as those who play their parts today, remarked:

"Three hostile newspapers are more to be feared than a thousand bayonets."

An unfettered press assumes for the people of the United States more importance than ever before, since the birth of the republic. Like all forms of liberty, it can be maintained only at the cost of eternal vigilance. In the last few years newspapers have had to battle repeatedly to maintain their constitutional rights against assaults.

America, accustomed for generations to an outspoken and informative press, may forget how precious is the heritage. Its value is thoroughly understood by those who have been forced to flee from oppression in Europe.

Thomas Mann, Nobel prize winner, exile from Nazi persecution, in commenting on the partition of Czechoslovakia in 1938, said the fate of Europe might have been different had the French and British press "been willing and able to fulfill its task of enlightening the people."

Abbe Ernest Dimmet, noted French philosopher, arriving in this country in the fall of 1938, hailed the freedom of the American press as one of the remaining bright rays in a darkening world.

That free institutions and a servile press, under the thumb of government, cannot exist side by side was stated eloquently by the late President Calvin Coolidge. Addressing the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington, Jan. 17, 1925, Mr. Coolidge hailed American newspapers as "the best in the world." He declared:

"Wherever the cause of liberty is making its way, one of its highest accomplishments is the guarantee of the freedom of the press."

President Franklin D. Roosevelt has repeatedly demonstrated his reliance on the power of the press. No other president has held so many and so well-attended press conferences.

Writing to William N. Hardy, chairman of the National Newspaper Week Committee, Mr. Roosevelt said, in part:

"I hope in observance of National Newspaper Week that due emphasis will be placed on the necessity for maintaining freedom of the press in a democracy. Freedom of conscience, of education, of speech, of assembly are among the very fundamentals of democracy and all of them would be nullified should freedom of the press ever be successfully challenged."

In congratulating the editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch on the 60th anniversary of that newspaper, Dec. 11, 1938, the president wrote:

"A free press is essential to us as a people and to the maintenance of our form of government."

Earlier in his administration, Mr. Roosevelt, in a letter to the Editor and Publisher, dated April 17, 1935, said that he welcomed "constructive criticism of us in government" by the newspapers.

Mr. Roosevelt is one of a long line of statesmen—American and British—who have exalted the freedom of the press. Most prolific of presidential commentators was Thomas Jefferson. The great Democrat was so imbued with the importance of an unshackled press that he said:

"Were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers, or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter."

In one of his letters he wrote: "The press is the best instrument for enlightening the mind of men, and improving him as a rational, moral and social being." Jefferson wrote of the press as an outsider. But his friend Benjamin Franklin was an insider, a printer's devil who became the greatest editor of his time. When he was a boy he worked on his brother James' paper, in Boston. James, having been jailed for expressing views contrary to those of the authorities, Ben carried on, and had the temerity to publish the following in the journal: "Without freedom of thought there can be no such thing as wisdom; and no such thing as public liberty without freedom of speech; which is the right of every man as far as by it he does not hurt or control the right of another. . . ."

Ratification of the Constitution of the United States would have been impossible had not the States been assured that the Bill of Rights including a provision for freedom of the press, would be included in it.

Patrick Henry was a delegate to the Virginia convention; and he did not approve the Constitution. He was "most awfully alarmed," amongst other reasons because it lacked a Bill of Rights. The Virginia convention, after a prolonged debate, was able to ratify the Federal Constitution by a majority of only 10 votes, so ably did Patrick Henry argue against it. The ratification was voted only after James Madison pledged his word at the earliest opportunity he would move for the adoption of a bill of rights. And on July 21, 1789, Madison, then a member of the House of Representatives, proposed the ten amendments constituting the Bill of Rights, which were adopted.

When the Federalists passed the pernicious Sedition Act, in 1798, which had the effect of curbing the free exercise of the freedom of the press, it was the same James Madison who called the law "a monster which must forever disgrace its parents."

"To the press alone," Madison also wrote, "the world is indebted for all the triumphs which have been gained by reason and humanity over error and oppression."

The pages of our national history shine like diamonds with countless such comments on the press by our greatest men and women.

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.—John 8:32.

Newspapers are the sentinels of the liberties of our country.

—Benjamin Rush

The entire and absolute freedom of the press is essential to the preservation of government on the basis of a free constitution.

—Daniel Webster

Let it be impressed upon your minds, let it be instilled in your children, that the liberty of the press is the palladium of all civil, political, and religious rights.

—Junius

The liberty of the press is essential to a free government.

—Blackstone.

The liberty of the press is a blessing.

—Samuel Johnson

The time, it is hoped, is gone by when any defense would be necessary of the 'liberty of the press' as one of the securities against corrupt or tyrannical government. No argument, we may suppose, can now be needed, against permitting a legislature or an executive, not identified in interest with the people to prescribe opinions to them, and determine what doctrines or what arguments they shall be allowed to hear.

—John Stuart Mill, in 1859

Newspapers are the schoolmasters of the common people. That endless book, the newspaper, is our national glory.

—Henry Ward Beecher.

That country must be sound wherein one may speak freely and openly without its defects.

—Thomas Mann.

History teaches that human liberty cannot be secured unless

Amusements

The money which the Chicago Opera Company has received as its share of record sales made by the Music Appreciation Committee will be spent for the greatest good of the greatest number of opera lovers in making indispensable modernizations of the scenery for this and future seasons. PREFERRED

because out of the ordinary
...and that's what they say about

GOOD OLD
Rheingold
BEER

A Beverage of Moderation

Do you know just how important beer is to the farmer? Since 1933 the brewing industry has made it possible for hundreds of thousands of farmers to return to a wealthier and happier life. More than 3 million acres of farm land are under cultivation to raise the more than 120 million dollars worth of produce used annually by the brewing industry.

We, the brewers of GOOD OLD RHEINGOLD BEER, purchase only the choicest ingredients obtainable. This fact, plus our 80 years' experience, enables us to make good beer. No wonder people keep on drinking it and saying, "Once a Rheingold Beer Drinker — Always a Rheingold Beer Drinker."

GOOD OLD RHEINGOLD BEER costs no more than ordinary beers so try it today — learn why it is PREFERRED.
